

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

20 October 2023

Quilter plc

Confirmation of Offer Price and Tax Treatment of the Odd-lot Offer

Further to the announcement made on Monday 18 September 2023 regarding the Odd-lot Offer, Quilter plc ("Quilter" or the "Company") announces that the price per ordinary share to be paid to Odd-lot Holders whose ordinary shares are to be repurchased pursuant to the Odd-lot Offer (the "Offer Price") will be:

Type of shareholding	Offer Price
Ordinary shares held on the UK share register (the " UK Register ")	88.10 pence (GBP)
Ordinary shares held on the South African share register (the " SA Register ")	2,008.91 cents (ZAR)

The prices have been calculated as set out below:

- (i) in the case of ordinary shares held on the UK Register, a 5% premium to the volume weighted average price of ordinary shares traded on the London Stock Exchange ("LSE") over the five trading days prior to Friday 20 October 2023; and
- (ii) in the case of ordinary shares held on the SA Register, a 5% premium to the volume weighted average price of ordinary shares traded on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange ("JSE") over the five trading days prior to Friday 20 October 2023.

Odd-lot Holders recorded on the UK Register will be paid in pounds sterling by direct credit. If we do not hold a shareholder's bank or building society details, a cheque in pounds sterling will be issued.

Odd-lot Holders on the SA Register will be paid in rand by direct credit. No cheques will be issued. Shareholders who participate in the Odd-lot Offer and who hold their ordinary shares in Strate through a CSDP or broker will receive payment in accordance with the mandate signed between the CSDP or broker.

To receive payment for their ordinary shares pursuant to the Odd-lot Offer, Odd-lot Holders must remain recorded on the UK or SA Registers until Friday 10 November 2023, the Second Record Date. For administrative reasons, ordinary shares which are transferred between the UK and SA Registers or, in the case of dematerialised shareholders, which have been transferred between CSDPs, are not eligible to participate in the Odd-lot Offer.

Payment will be made on Monday 27 November 2023, at the risk of the relevant Odd-lot Holder.

The Directors of the Company, in their absolute discretion, reserve the right to withdraw the proposed Odd-lot Offer at any time.

The Directors, in their absolute discretion, reserve the right to exclude any Odd-lot Holder and/or withdraw any proposed Odd-lot Offer from any shareholder at any time.

Taxation

Shareholders who participate in the Odd-lot Offer should consider the tax implications of such participation.

In order to assist shareholders, a general description of the South African and UK tax treatment of participating in the Odd-lot Offer for certain classes of shareholder has been made available on the Company's website at plc.quilter.com/OLO. Information for Odd-lot Holders on the SA register in respect of the South African Dividends Tax is set out below.

Shareholders who are in any doubt as to their own tax position should consult their own professional adviser.

South African Dividends Tax

The Offer Price of 2,008.91 ZA cents per ordinary share held on the SA Register should all comprise a foreign return of capital and therefore not a foreign dividend paid by a foreign company, in respect of a listed share for the purposes of the dividends tax provisions contained in the South African Income Tax Act, 1962 (the "Income Tax Act"). Accordingly, Regulated Intermediaries should not be required to withhold any amount from the Offer Price on account of South African dividends tax. Instead, the Offer Price should be treated as a capital receipt and shareholders participating in the Odd-lot Offer may realise a gain or loss, depending on their base cost in the shares.

Further information, including details of the background to and reasons for the Odd-lot Offer, the full timetable and summary of certain tax consequences of the Odd-lot Offer can be found on our website at plc.quilter.com/OLO.
